Lesson 2 (April 12, 2020)

Hope for a Better Life

I Corinthians 15:1–8, 12–14, 20–23, 42–45

Paul indicates that the story of the Resurrection was a tradition that had been passed to him and that he passed to the Corinthians. Tradition sometimes gets a bad name; however, without tradition our faith would not have stood the test of time. What traditions have been formative for your faith? Write them down and pass them along to your children and/or grandchildren.

Proclamation or preaching is central to the communication of the Gospel. Think on the sermons that have made a lasting impact. Revisit your notes, if you are able. After reflecting, make sure to share the Good News that fed you
