Jeremiah 21:8-14

Jeremiah's prophecy was considered seditious. Sometimes in order to follow God our loyalty to others and even country may be compromised. Can you think of any instances in which we may have to act in ways that are against the current order?

There has been much speculation on why Jeremiah cried as much as he did. However, in his eponymous book there are plenty of good reasons to weep. He must prophesy destruction to the city and people that he loved. If you were called to prophesy or arrest someone that you loved, could you do it?
